The exit of prostitution

Law 13 april 2016

You want to stop prostitution ?

You are in prostitution?
Are you a victim of pimping or human trafficking?

You want to leave prostitution but you do not know your rights and what document, paper ask?

The law in France says :

- Being a prostitute is not a crime or an offence.
- Prostitution is not considered a job.
- Being a customer, buying sex for money or in exchange for something is prohibited by law.
- To be a pimp, the one who helps, assists or protects the prostitution of a person, profits from the prostitution of a person, recruits, incites, exerts pressure for a person to be a prostitute is prohibited by law

You can benefit from the exit of prostitution

You can be helped by an association with a social worker.

You may be entitled to a social inclusion financial allowance called AFIS.

You may be entitled to employment, training.

As a foreigner, you may be eligible for a 6-month temporary residence permit.

You may be entitled to accommodation, protection.

The help of the exit of prostitution

The law of April 13, 2016 to strengthen the fight against the prostitution system and to support prostituted people can benefit from a device "exit of prostitution"

Who can benefit ?

Any adult, French or foreigner who is victim of prostitution, procuring or human trafficking.

Who to ask ?

- To an approved association like Amicale du Nid.

How it works ?

- With the help of an association, you submit an application to benefit from the exit of prostitution from the Departmental Commission chaired by the Prefect of Isère.
- The Departmental Commission studies your request.
